

Circle

Austin

10-28-11

Definition of a circle - A circle is a type of line. Imagine a straight line segment that is bent around until its ends join. Then arrange that loop until it is exactly circular - that is, all points along that line are the same distance from a center point.

Work cited <http://www.mathopenref.com/circle.html>